Renewed Beliefs 9:15 a.m. Parlor

(church office building)

Our Class consists of people with Methodist backgrounds, people of other religious backgrounds, people who have departed from religion for a period in their lives, and people with no religious background. We welcome everyone regardless of age and marital status. We have an open atmosphere, enjoying the input every person has to offer and agreeing to sometimes disagree...

Our Goals are to be a caring class, to provide an atmosphere of spiritual growth, have fellowship, and to study the Bible and contemporary references that have an application to daily living.

We Strive to support the church in its various ministries and missions. In addition, we are involved in several class-sponsored community outreach programs.

We Enjoy social events that provide fellowship and entertainment for our class, our friends, and our families.

Everyone in our class is a teacher, as we read and discuss our books and lessons together.

Past studies have included works by John Ortberg and James Moore. Our lessons are led by class members, with discussion encouraged.
