Susanna Wesley 9:15 a.m. Bethel Building Room 212

Susanna Wesley, herself one of 25 children, delivered 19 children of her own. She found the time to provide a Christian home and spiritual education for each of her children, including the preacher John Wesley, and Charles Wesley, the writer of many hymns.

Susanna married a minister, Samuel Wesley, who moved his family to the church at Epworth, where during a fire, the young child John was saved from death. Later, that time in John's life was called "a brand plucked from the burning."

Susanna lived a disciplined life, a full and rewarding life, and inspired us to learn from her Godly example. We are committed to living our faith, learning to walk in spiritual ways, and to serving those in need.

We are a class composed of singles, widows, and married whose husbands do not participate in Sunday school. We are younger, older, with children and without. We are home-makers and retired or working outside our homes.

We are interested in women's health issues, the plight of the homeless, the need for juvenile justice, and the education of young people.

We participate in many ministries of the church and bring those interests to our Sunday school. We are open to new ideas and searching for involvement in our church and community.
